The burger king most Canadians don't know "Jack" about -- Jack Cowin, that is -- even though he is on Canada's Richest 100 List.

The CFAL group of companies has a sales revenue of $1.2 billion and net shareholder value of over $400 million.

The company owns and operates 319 fast food restaurants in Australia trading as Hungry Jack's and KFC, and also founded the Domino's Pizza business. It also operates three manufacturing plants that produce frozen meat products and processed vegetables for the supermarket, food service industry; the company exports food products to 26 countries and has won several Australian Export Awards.

Also in attendance will be Jeannie Foster of Air Canada, the new President of the Canadian Australian Chamber of Commerce, based in Sydney, Australia.
